World Book Day – Thursday 7th March. 'A book at bedtime'

Dear parents and carers,

It is almost World Book Day again, so I thought it would be good to give you a bit of information about how we will be celebrating it this year!

As always, the children will be invited to dress up – if they would like to come as a book character they are absolutely welcome, but our theme this year is 'A book at bedtime' so children can also choose to come in pyjamas, dressing gowns or onesies: the perfect clothes for enjoying a book before going to sleep.

Parents are welcome to join us from 2:30 in classes to read with your children – we will provide the hot chocolate and biscuits!

There will also be some book-related quizzes and competitions in classes on the day, at a cost of 20p each to enter.

Also, to build up to World Book Day, we have the Book Fair in school from Tuesday 27th February until Monday 4th March. Books and other goodies will be for sale each night after school until approximately 3:30. We are also running a free 'Design a Bookmark' competition, starting on Monday 26th February. Class teachers will be giving out blank bookmarks for children to decorate and one lucky winner per class will receive a £5 voucher to spend at the book fair. Please hand in the completed bookmarks by the end of Thursday 29th February.

We love reading, and can't wait to have a day of sharing books and stories on March 7th!

Kind regards,
N Mitchell
